ROUTINE ITEMS

III. EXECUTIVE SESSION

1. An Executive Session of the School Board was conducted January 21, 2021 to receive information from the superintendent on an intergovernmental agreement without deliberation.
 - Mr. Mowad had asked at the Work Session for specific kindergarten enrollment information and test scores for students. He was able to acquire this information and wanted to present his findings, exhibiting that students in other districts that have all day Kindergarten still have many students attending Charter schools. His presentation also showed the test scores of the Central Valley students comparatively speaking are relative. His presentation can be found on Exhibit A.

IV. PUBLIC COMMENTS ON AGENDA ITEMS

- Mr. Halsey read the email comments received prior to the meeting. Exhibit B
- Jennifer Checketts expressed her thoughts and concerns regarding all-day kindergarten, asking why now? She also talked about the importance of community input and attendance at the meetings.
- Daniel Camp spoke about his opposition to the new debt. He wanted to address some statements that he felt were inaccurate about the tax revenue. He was concerned that taking on such a progress without the realization of actual revenue would only be met with raising taxes for the community.

- Rachel Schway asked the Board for more time before voting on the subject of all day Kindergarten.
- Mr. Halesey explained what the vote this evening actually means. How a passing vote means that Dr. Perry can begin to move forward discussing curriculum changes and staffing. Any renovation plans and costs would take place at a later meeting with a presentation to the community.
- Mr. Halesey proceeded with additional comments made online up until that point of the meeting. Exhibit C

A restoration company was called in and have been working on the repairs. There was a water main break near the staff parking lot at the high school. This has been an issue in the past, Dr. Perry closed the high school building, staff was told to stay home. As students were already utilizing virtual learning, the teacher's taught from home.
- The question was asked if insurance was used? Dr. Perry said that the high school issue did not; however, the middle school did file an insurance claim. The deductible, Mr. Ambrose pointed out, was probably $25,000, using most of the monies earmarked as Capital Reserve.

J. SUPERINTENDENT'S ITEMS/COMMENTS

- Students will be back to in school instruction starting with elementary on Monday and secondary on Tuesday. Mitigation efforts are still in place. Dr. Perry made his rounds to the buildings and the teachers are excited to have their students return. The District will continue exercising six feet distance wherever and whenever possible, masks will still be mandated, etc. He reiterated that upon notification of a positive case, the District will notify those necessary. He asked for the community to continue to be flexible should there be a need to return to virtual as the District will do the best it can to keep school open. He asks that there be faith in school officials and know that there is a passion for both students and staff safety.
- Dr. Perry spoke that information will be sent to parents about the use of Flexible Instruction Days that will be utilized should school need to be closed due to inclement weather. Students will simply have virtual instruction on those days. The snow days built into the school calendar will be days off for students, professional staff and various support personnel.
- Dr. Perry thanked the Board for all the projects they work on. He is very proud to lead the District into the future. There will be lots of options and scenarios to be voted upon in the future and he will work to keep the community informed.

K. BOARD MEMBERS' COMMENTS

- Mr. Zaritski thanked and wanted it noted the Kindergarten and Finance Committees for all their hard work and time involved in preparing the information regarding full day Kindergarten. He wanted it to be clear that the process is moving forward, but the Kindergarten committee vote to move forward and the Finance committee voted to not move forward.
- Mr. Bloom echoed Mr. Zaritski's comments and is looking forward to working with curriculum planning.
- Mr. Ross thanked Dr. Perry for all the complements to the Board. He also thanked the community in the room and virtually. He indicated he based his decision on the Kindergarten Committee's data and believes the right decision was made. He looks forward to getting the students back from the Charter school and recouping the $500,000 cost to send the students there. He believes Mr. Ambrose assessment of how tax base will grow in this community. He said that he knows they talked about work needed on the middle school and high school but wants to do a first-class job in our buildings but there is no way we can afford this to happen, at least we feel that we will get some money back via Baden Academy.
- Mr. King thanked the Board and parent comments.
- Mr. Mowad thanked the parents both present and online. He wished the students good luck on Monday, he knows the elementary teachers are planning some surprises for their return. He said that he understands that a consensus was made on Kindergarten and that will move forward; however, finances need to be kept in mind. He wants to work to not impact taxes.

- Mr. Ambrose also thanked everyone for coming out and online. He wanted to comment that for the past few weeks and months of students online has been phenomenal. He asks Dr. Perry to please share that with the buildings.
- Dr. Unis reiterated that he does not think all day Kindergarten is the best for right now. He is concerned about financial catastrophic events such as water lines just happened with a $25,000 deductible. He is concerned about all the children in our district, not just Kindergarten students.
- Ms. Belcastro thanked everyone that commented through email and those in attendance. She likes getting everyone involved.

L. PUBLIC COMMENTS

- Mr. Halsey finished up the online comments. Dr. Perry addressed one of the comments about feeling safe. He said that mitigation efforts that were done before will continue. He said that the beauty of our options are that should anyone feel uncomfortable, they have the option of staying home and doing virtual and we will do everything to make that the best situation possible.
- Mr. Camp asked Mr. Halsey to explain the vote made tonight. He answered that the Board has authorized Dr. Perry to continue the process needed for the all day Kindergarten. There will be additional votes that will be taken over the course of the next several years as this program is implemented. Dr. Perry echoed there will be things that need to be done. He will need to get with architects and develop options for space. The Board will need to make decisions on the scope of the project such as the building of a gymnasium and at various times along the way. Right now, the teaching staff will now begin the curriculum development that will take at least a year. He said that there will be future presentations to the public on what all the options moving forward will be prior to a Board vote.
- Mr. Camp continued that he just wanted the public to understand. He is confident that the communities will get behind this and support it. He believes the last thing to take is that even though we are in a world wide pandemic, something good has come of this; such as the ability to go to online learning easily should that be necessary. The capital reserve has already been used with the last flood so there may be times for the need to dip into reserved funds. Dr. Perry reiterated that the state of education moving forward has changed. We are now able to meet the needs of both students educating in the brick and mortar as well as those working at virtually from home.

1/21/2021 19:02:00	Katie	Kubis	124 Mary Street	As an educator and a parent whose child did not get to go to her first year of prek because of the pandemic, there are many reasons why full-time Kindergarten is beneficial. First, researchers are now discovering that extended early education leads to an enhanced ability to read and cognitively perform more effectively. The will learn to read earlier and work on basic math skills sooner. It also allows for more social interaction and problem solving skills. It can help improve their social and emotional development and boost self-confidence and independence. Additionally, children will learn how to adapt to routines and engage in tasks for longer periods of time. I would love to see this implemented earlier than 2023 so that my daughter could attend and not have to go to another district, but it seems as that might not be feasible. This is a long time coming and we have been selling our children short for a long time because of not providing this opportunity to them.
1/21/2021 19:02:38	kristin	holmes	135 mary street	What a tough decision. With the current situation many kids are in today because of the pandemic, it is easy to say YES! To full day kindergarten. Why not? Well, it's simple. Yes, these kids are missing out on friendships and practicing social skills and maybe enhancing their reading skills or writing their names—but is that really what matters at age 5 and 6? Kids are rushed to be older, more mature than ever. Kids need play time, structured or free. I do not want my kids attending school full day, for 8 hours being rushed to grow up. If half the day would be guaranteed recess—great, sign them up! But I guarantee it will not be. The time will be filled in with reading practice, letter writing, math, maybe science and specials but mostly more test taking skills! Yes, I see it daily as I teach in a district where these kids spend their days with great teachers playing with friends but also being told to sit still, be quiet, stay in line and fill in the bubble-- not circle it! I see kids crying because of the pressure to do this. I am not ready to prepare my child for this pressure. This is not my envision of a fun and purposeful childhood. I want her to wear her princess dresses, laugh, giggle, tell make believe stories and be excited for school learning. An 8 hour day is way to long, in person or on devices. So, why rush them? Why take away what little fun and innocence they have? Once you are older, you cannot go back—let them play with their hands, build towers, design crazy hats, color pictures and glue cotton balls, not force them to grow up. I get it. I teach and know school provides so much more than education: it is safety, food and love. Many households are challenged with lifes' requirements and demands, making them ecstatic over having their kid safe and loved for 8 hours of the day while they are unable. I just would be sad to send my child off to school knowing she will be forced to grow up. It happens eventually, but I want to savor her childhood just a little more. When we were looking to buy a house, we chose CV because of this unique option for half day kindergarten! Being unique is great and should be strongly considered to remain so. Thank you for your time. I am excited to be sending our daughters to kindergarten in the near future. I just hope it will be a CV bus and not another outside location, paid for by the district. As far as renovations go, renovate away! Create for the future, don't skimp where you will regret it later. Build big spaces and extra spaces. Ask the teachers for input—it is them who will know best! Use their knowledge! What about a STEAM/Tech ed wing for future designers?

1/21/2021 19:03:15	Lily	Cassida	None	As a student, why should I come back for in person schooling? What is going to be done differently this time around that will make me and other students feel safe?
1/21/2021 19:05:07	Laura	Crawley	848 Monaca Rd	If the district moves forward with this project where would it leave the other schools? It doesn't appear the funds would be available to upgrade any of the other buildings academically or physically. If a major component failed, would that put the district in financial distress. Looking at the feasibility study from 2015 it seems repairs will need to be made. How can we advance technology, stem, and trade programs for our future graduates if there are no funds?How can we say we are improving our academics by adding full day, but then turning around and having to cut programs or increase class sizes?
1/21/2021 19:08:02	Tracey	Beede	147 McCracken Dr,	I was under the impression that before TL construction started the plan was to move to the middle school and then the high school. I believe that the middle school and high school should be the next projects the district looks at. They are older buildings that continue to need costly repairs. Center Grange is a newer building with space issues. Other options should be looked at. I also do not want to see programs cut in the upper grades to pay for construction at CG. I currently have students in CG, TL, and the high school and will have a kindergartener in the fall.

1/21/2021 20:14:07	Michele	Wachenheimer	3265 Brodheadhead rd	I like the option of full time daycare. However it seems that other schools other than center need more tending to and if the entire budget is spent at center grange it doesn't seem that would happen. What about adding full time kindergarten as an option and not mandatory. Offering a couple full time and a couple half days so parents can choose. This way potentially less funds could be spent at center grange. Ultimately I am not in favor of spending all funds available on one specific area when it seems there are many other schools in dire need of updates. Can we give a little here and a little there?
1/21/2021 20:22:43	Vanessa Fontana	Fontana	121 Jenny Lynn Drive Aliquippa PA 15001	As an educator in a neighboring district, I wanted to extend my thoughts and professional insights on the benefits of Central Valley School District transitioning to a Full-Day Kindergarten program. Central Valley School District is the only school district in the county to not offer a full day program which puts our young students at a disadvantage to students in neighboring districts. I, as I know all of you, take pride in our district and feel that Central Valley School District should be "THE" example of a district that people want to move into, not one that is lacking of supports and services. Countless peer-reviewed studies have concluded that the benefits of a full-day kindergarten program far out way the disadvantages. In the past, Kindergarten was our students first experience with schooling; however, 42% of 3-year-olds, 66% of 4-year-olds, and 86% of 5-year-olds are already enrolled in pre-K programs. Both the National Association of School Psychologists and Niche Resources, which we look to for school ratings have studied and referenced the benefits to Full-Day Kindergarten Programs.
1/21/2021 20:23:05	Marcus	Brown	207 Princeton Dr	I am a parent of a child that will enter Kindergarten in the 2021 school year who currently attends PreK-counts at Todd Lane and two other students that are currently in the school district. While I can be pleased with a decision not to move forward with building a new wing and gym due to financial feasibility. I do on the other hand wish to ask that you assess all possibilities that the board could consider as alternatives to being able to house full day kindergarten classes. Reviewing some of the state standard tests in High school as well as Elementary, our school district has gone to great measures to ensure our kids have the best opportunity to develop and reduced those educational gaps. I can speak to that first hand as my current 3rd grader took part in some of those programs. There will be varying academic results with any option chosen. We have to give the kids the opportunity to seek more educational time with the teachers now to practice those skills. With the district's best practices, full day kindergarten will give them the greatest opportunity for educational success and increased student achievement. Finding room within current buildings will provide this opportunity for the future classes while the academic gaps are currently the smallest. This additional time with teachers will allow our students to continue to grow academically. Thank you for your time.
1/21/2021 20:42:04	Michael	Walmsley	130 Cedar Ridge Drive	Even if full time kindergarten is able to pull back any students, CV still has the opportunity to lose these students as they progress in their educational careers and encounter run down and inferior structures at the middle school and high school level.

1/21/2021 19:09:49	Dana	Bauer	135 McCracken Drive Monaca, PA 15061	I am aware that full day Kindergarten is being discussed, and a lot of talk and information found in the presentation from the last meeting centers around the financial implications of such a decision. I feel as though prolonging full day Kindergarten does a disservice to the developmental needs of the children, not just academically, but emotionally and socially, too. Because half day K is currently offered, parents are sometimes forced to send their children to alternate placements. When children all return to first grade, it takes teachers the entire year to get children the supports they need. These children are behind children in neighboring districts. In other districts, children get these supports in K and are on the right track by first grade. In addition, children in K in neighboring districts are getting more academic support and much more rigorous academic instruction. Our children are behind. If full day K is not implemented, how does the District plan on bridging these gaps? Does the board look outside of the county? Allegheny county districts is 20 minutes away, and we are far behind. I teach in one of these districts.
1/21/2021 19:11:50	Dana	Bauer	135 McCracken Drive Monaca, PA 15061	Is there a reason the District compares our education to only schools in the county? How about Moon? West A? Montour?
1/21/2021 19:13:37	Leslie	Freshkorn	145 Grandview Ave	How do you plan to pay for this renovation/addition? A tax increase? If that is your answer I wonder how you think people that can barely afford to feed their families can afford more taxes. The school is giving out breakfast and lunches for children and the food pantry has our community lined up and sitting in the Lowe's parking lot for free food. How can you justify spending this kind of money on Center Grange knowing that the other two buildings are in need of so much work/updating? Basically not worrying about the education that the current middle school and high school students are getting to provide a better education for incoming kindergarten students. Our current kids deserve a chance at excelling and we have not been giving that to them. The middle and high school students should have every opportunity that we can provide them to get "caught up" with the surrounding districts... not get left behind... pushed further behind because we are concentrating on future students.
1/21/2021 19:23:25	Kristen	Milanovich	108 Park Drive	Thank you for the information and the detailed explanations. My question is whether or not the older school buildings that were acquired with the Monaca merger been considered for moving grade levels?
1/21/2021 19:29:28	Brandi	Patterson	111 Pinehaven Ct	If we proceed with the plans for all day K, will that push any plans or exploration for the Middle School updates or renovations?
1/21/2021 19:31:46	Leslie	Freshkorn	145 Grandview Ave	I could swear I saw that only 10 - 25 ppl were going to be admitted to the meeting... I personally assumed that there wld be that many there, so I did not attend.
1/21/2021 19:32:21	Brandi	Patterson	111 Pinehaven Ct	What is so pressing on this full day K initiative vs. the state of our other schools that clearly need attention?
1/21/2021 19:32:48	Dana	Bauer	135 McCracken Drive Monaca, PA 15061	Was there a zoom link on the District's website for the meeting last week? There is a pandemic going on. I looked and didn't see a link, nor did I see it on the agenda last week. Also, why was the presentation for the study and the information that there was a committee or updates on the the committee that was meeting for the past 18 months on the website? I haven't seen one thing. As a taxpayer, this upsets me.
1/21/2021 19:33:38	Brandi	Patterson	111 Pinehaven Court	Why has the full day K plan moved up to the top of the list for half of the school board?
1/21/2021 19:43:25	Lisa	Mitchell	175 Edgewater Drive	I am all for all day kindergarten but wonder if right now is really the best time to take on a project of that magnitude. I have children in all four of the schools here in Central Valley School District and know how bad the middle school and high school need to be updated and taken care of. I believe the focus should be there first, and then move on to expanding the primary school. My kids come home with stories of tar leaking from the roof, buckets throughout the school to catch whatever is leaking at that time of year, and kids in their classes being too hot to focus on their work due to hot temperatures in the summer and fall, just to name a few. I appreciate your efforts to expand into all day kindergarten but would love to see a priority be on the middle and high schools first. Thank you.
1/21/2021 19:49:34	Debbie	Pantzis	1086 chapel rd	Please do not raise my school tax again! It's been raised twice in the last few years. The amount you want to spend on all day kindergarten is very high.
1/21/2021 20:01:08	Robin	Smith	Chapel road	I agree with all day kindergarten in the future! My concern is the middle school and high school! Those 2 schools are in need of major repairs! Please consider updating those schools first!

Dr. Nicholas Perry

Superintendent
Central Valley School District
160 Baker Rd. Extension
Monaca, Pennsylvania, 15061

Dear Dr. Perry:

I am writing to notify you that I am resigning from my position as seventh grade English teacher at Central Valley Middle School. In the best interest of my students, I am happy to help find my replacement and assist in the transition process.

I greatly appreciate the opportunities that Central Valley has provided me, as well as the professional guidance and support that has allowed me to grow within this role. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with Mr. Dolph, Ms. Hicks, helping our wonderful students, and collaborating with my colleagues. These past two and a half years have been a joy as a classroom teacher.

Although I will sincerely miss this position, I have found a new position which allows me to grow as a teacher leader and also allows me to work closer to home. As both of these have always been goals of mine, I feel this is the right time to move onto new challenges and opportunities. I wish you and Central Valley all the success in the future, and I do hope to have our paths cross again in the future.

Sincerely,

Jessica B. Cable
